DETAILED ACTION

Response to Amendment

1. The finality of the previous office action is withdrawn for the purpose of applying newly discovered prior art.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

2. Claims 7-9, 26 and 27 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Nishizawa, et al. (US2004/0118484). The claimed composition is disclosed in [0013]. An amount of oxygen is 2000 ppm or less [0014]. Zr exists in the grain boundary phase [0043]. The claimed range of Dy is .1% to 4.0% is found in [0050]. The mean grain size of between 3.3 and 4.3µm is found in [0062].

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

1. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Art Unit: 2832

2. Claim 10 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Nishizawa, et al.

Nishizawa, et al., discloses the claimed invention except for a multipolar magnet. The examiner takes official notice it would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to dispose Nishizawa's, et al., permanent magnet with a multipolar profile.

Allowable Subject Matter

3. Claims 1-6, 12-17, 19-25, and 28-33 are allowed.
4. Claim 11 is objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.
5. The following is a statement of reasons for the indication of allowable subject matter: Nishizawa, et al., the closest prior art of record failed to disclose or teach an embodiment including the amount of nitrogen is 20 to 600 ppm and the amount of carbon is 1,500 ppm or less, nor wherein Nb is .2% to 1.5% by weight.
